Special Message:

Are you aware that the United Services Automobile Association (USAA) has made significant contributions to both the State and National Associations?

Because of USAA's contributions, we have been able to keep the New Patriot Magazine on time for the last couple of years. USAA pays for the printing and mailing of that quarterly magazine. This saves the membership a lot of money and helps us keep our membership dues to a minimum. In addition to supporting the New Patriot magazine, USAA provides scholarships to the National Association and a $500.00 scholarship to each State Association.

We need to support the organization that has shown fantastic support for our Association, both at State and National level. All we have to do to keep these important benefits is to call USAA at 1-800-531-8366 for a free auto or homeowners insurance quote or you can explore the other financial services they have to offer. Even if you do not need these services at this time it won't cost you anything but will help us as an Association. Their continued support hinges on our support to their organization.

P.S. You might be surprised at the deals you can get. Please take time to call today.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

*Roberta Coker,
WNGEA President*

Dear Fellow Soldiers and Airmen,

Happy New Year!

I hope you and your family had a wonderful and peaceful holiday season. With the New Year, not only will my family have a member deployed but several of our board members will also be deployed. I ask that we keep our deployed members and their families in our thoughts and prayers throughout the year for their safe return home.

Last year our association worked closely with the officers association to hold a successful combined conference. Based on the great response we received last year providing Professional Development classes for both enlisted and officers, The Adjutant General has approved 100 enlisted and officer members "Combined" to attend the Professional Development classes we are scheduling for this year's conference which will include: Speed of Trust, Generational Values, Leadership and Achieving Life Balance. Any service member can attend the Professional Development classes. Registration procedures are in this addition of the Bucky. I hope to see more of you attend the conference this year in Eau Clair and participate in the Professional Development classes.

Every month the Enlisted Association of the National Guard of the United States (EANGUS) National Office publishes drill weekend "Talking Points". The "Talking Points" update enlisted members on the progress EANGUS has made on multiple issues to include TRICARE Reserve Select Expansion, Forever G.I. Bill Benefits for Members of the National Guard, Army National Guard 4.0 Roll Out in 2018 and the National Defense Authorization Act. These are just a few areas they are working hard in support of the enlisted force. They would not be as successful as they are without all our current members, but we still need more new members to help EANGUS continue to fight for us. Annual membership is only $25.00 and a life time membership is $220.00. Please consider joining or if you are a current member consider sponsoring a new member this year. To register and become a member our link is www.wngea.org

Thank you all again and I hope to see everyone at our 2018 WINGA/WNGEA Joint Conference at the Lismore Hotel, Eau Clair, WI, 27 – 29 April 2018.

Respectfully,

ROBERTA COKER, SMSgt, WI ANG
WNGEA President

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR by Gary Hans

Assembly Bill 552 modifies the membership requirements for membership in the Red Arrow Club organized in this state, current law allows the following members only:

1. members of the 32nd Division at any time during World War I.
2. members who served in the 32nd Division of the U.S. Army at any time in the period from October 10, 1940, to the termination of World War II.
3. members who served in the 32nd Division in federal service at any time in the period from October 15, 1961, to August 10, 1962, during the Berlin Crisis.

This bill modifies the membership requirements for a Red Arrow Club to be eligible for incorporation as described. Under the bill, the Red Arrow Club must be composed of the following persons:

1. members of the 32nd Division who served at any time from World War II
2. members who served in the 32nd Division in the U.S. Army
3. members who served with the 32nd Infantry Brigade or the 32nd Infantry Brigade Combat Team, Wisconsin Army National Guard, in any conflict, deployment, peacekeeping operation, or domestic response if the member was deployed in a federal or state status or conducted training to carry out such missions.

An amendment was made to include the members of the 32nd Division at any time during World War I. Although there are no members left from World War I, the amendment went forward to include their era as eligible so they will not be forgotten.

In attendance in support of Assembly Bill 552 was COL

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR by Gary Hans

Gary Hans,
Executive Director

John Oakley, Commander, 32d Brigade, CPT Brian Faltinson, PAO, Jackie Guthrie, Director of Government and Public Affairs, Mike Williams, WINGA and myself representing the WNGEA.

Assembly Bill 769 is in direct response to the Hurricane Irma call when it was identified that state law does not protect college students in the same way it protects employees who are summoned to state or federal active duty.

Under current law, orders must be for more than 30 days in length before a student at a public university or certain private post-secondary schools can seek a tuition reimbursement if they must drop a class for military service. Under the proposed bill, AB 769, college students at any post-secondary school in Wisconsin who are members of the Reserve Component may seek a tuition reimbursement and pro-rated room and board refund if they are summoned to state or federal active duty for any length of time. Additionally, the bill provides students with guaranteed re-enrollment in dropped courses.

Assembly Bill 769 proposal:

1. Eliminates the requirement that orders must be for 30 days before a service member student can take advantage of legal protections.
2. Specifies that the orders may be “with or without” the consent of the service member, so last-minute schools are covered in addition to state active duty, federal active duty and other emergency call-ups.
3. Applies the protections to all UW schools, all technical colleges, all private colleges/universities in Wisconsin or with a presence in Wisconsin, all professional/trade/skill schools in Wisconsin.
4. Requires all of the entities listed in point 3 to do the following:
 - a. Refund the student for tuition for classes or give them the chance to take those classes without charge upon their return
 - b. Refund the student for any room and board paid but not used
 - c. Give the student reenrollment in the semester in which they are discharged or next following semester, at the student’s choice
 - d. Give the student the chance to complete all academic requirements for a class if orders come within 30 days of the class’s conclusion

In attendance was Brain Sikma, Policy Advisor for the Office of Sen. Duey Stroebel, MAJ Bartholomew Droessler, Education Office, Jackie Guthrie, Director of Government and Public Affairs, Mike Williams, WINGA and myself representing the WNGEA.

Bucky's Auxiliary News

WISCONSIN NATIONAL GUARD ENLISTED ASSOCIATION AUXILIARY

SIDE-BY-SIDE WE STAND WITH PRIDE

MOVING FORWARD TOGETHER

*Catherine Berry,
WNGEA Auxiliary President*

You were represented at the September 29 Biennial Retirees Day at Fort McCoy. WNGEA and WNGEA Auxiliary shared a table to recruit and inform attendees about our organizations. One attendee joined the association and one joined the Auxiliary on site that day. We spoke with over 30 attendees and distributed membership forms and informational brochures.

Looking forward to seeing many of you in Eau Claire for our 2018 WNGEA Conference April 27-29, 2018. This facility will not be as spread out and less walking will be needed to attend sessions. The Friday evening Icebreaker will be a Mardi Gras theme. As decided at the 2017 annual meeting, there will not be a silent auction this year. Instead there will be many more items in the raffle and funds will go to scholarship and hospitality expenses. Some great speakers will be included in the Professional Development sessions and these are open to all attendees. The Auxiliary will be attending the Joint Meeting Session (with the officer and enlisted associations) Saturday from 8:45am-10:15am. The Auxiliary Annual meeting will be 10:15am-12:15am. We have the option of joining the Professional Development Luncheon and speaker 12:15pm-1:30pm. If we have additional business, we will reconvene at 1:30pm.

Please consider whether you might be interested in serving as our WNGEA Auxiliary Treasurer. Marie Traxler has graciously served in this capacity since 1984...totaling 34 years of service and has earned retirement from these duties. Primary responsibilities are collecting dues, dispersing scholarship funds, proposing the budget for the annual meeting, forwarding dues and scholarship donation to EANGUS Auxiliary annually, maintaining the current membership roster. If we are unable to fill this position, it may be necessary for us to become an inactive auxiliary without representation at the EANGUS Auxiliary nationally. At our 2017 annual meeting we discussed becoming inactive at the state level due to limited members being willing to serve as officers. We could still have a point of contact to share information from national with members. If you may be interested in serving and have questions, please feel free to contact me.

In 2018 WNGEA Auxiliary will offer two scholarships: 1-$700 and 1-$500 honoring Adele Cywinski, a prior very active WNGEA Auxiliary Member. For these state level scholarships the applicant must have a sponsor in the auxiliary and spouse of that auxiliary member in the association with two years of membership immediately preceding the application. WNGEA Auxiliary membership form will be available on the WNGEA.org website. WNGEA scholarship forms to apply and instructions are published in this issue of the Bucky and on the WNGEA website and are due by August 15, 2018.

The Enlisted Association of the National Guard of the United States Auxiliary (EANGUSA) will offer several scholarships in 2018: 1-$3000, 1-$2000, 1-$1500, 2-$1000 Additional EANGUS Auxiliary Scholarships funded by USAA, Kaplan University, and Grand Canyon University American Heroes are available. More detail on these is available at eangusauxiliary.org. To be eligible for these national scholarships the applicant must have a sponsor in the auxiliary and spouse of that auxiliary member in the association with one year of membership immediately preceding the application. Forms to apply and instructions are published in this issue of the Bucky and on the WNGEA website...due by June 1, 2018. At the 2017 Auxiliary annual business meeting new Scholarship Committee members were confirmed: Kathy Serrahn and Marlene Williams.

Our Area V Caucus will be May 18-19, 2018 in Rochester, Minnesota.

2017 EANGUS Publication award was presented at the January WNGEA Executive Council Board meeting: First Place to Wisconsin (Category 11) for Wisconsin National Guard Enlisted Association Auxiliary (trifold brochure) to Marie Traxler. The following two awards were shared with Roxie Barwick The Torch Award and The Sara Hendricks Lifetime Membership Award.

The EANGUS Conference will be in Charleston, West Virginia on August 11-16, 2018. Please note that our national newsletter the Signal is available through our national website. Any of you interested in it and not yet accessing it, let me know and I will be happy to send you the link as new issues are posted or I can send as an attachment to an email for you. To view prior issues see: <http://eangusauxiliary.org/publications/>

One of our roles is to lobby for legislation to support our military, veterans and retirees. If you have been contacting legislators we would like to hear about it and their responses, if any.
